VIOLATION OF CONDITIONS OF RELEASE

Date: January 19, 2010

MEMORANDUM

Your Honor,

The above-referenced defendant appeared before Your Honor on January 12, 2010, and was scheduled for a further violation and revocation hearing on January 27, 2010. On January 14, 2010, defense counsel contacted the undersigned officer and advised that she intended to facilitate the defendant's self-surrender to the U.S. Marshals Service. On that date, Your Honor issued an Order to Self-surrender to the U.S. Marshals Service.

Also on January 14, 2010, following the defendant's self-surrender, the undersigned received notification from Kroll Laboratories that a urine sample submitted by the defendant at the halfway house on January 6, 2010, tested positive for cocaine.

This violation of release conditions follows other violations incurred by the defendant while out on bond. Pretrial Services believes that the defendant is not amenable to community supervision and respectfully recommends that the defendant remain in custody for the pendency of his case.

This memorandum is submitted for Your Honor's information and consideration.

Respectfully submitted,
